Subject: The Homeland of Queen Soraya, First Muslim Consort who appeared in Public together with her husband before UN was founded, became a Battleground for Mujahideen Misogynist Terrorists who Claim Fake Islam to demonstrate their Hate -during UN existence- towards Women whom Allah and Prophet Muhammed gave Right for Education and Wisdom

Your Excellency,

At least in the recent decade, Member States -ranging from Australia to Colombia- have endorsed India's bid to become a Permanent Member in the United Nations Security Council.

At the start of your presidency of the council this month, you inspired us by announcing your focus on priority areas for our planet in order to prove your leadership to the world, laying out an agenda which embraces maritime security, peacekeeping, and counter-terrorism, and upholding a rules-based multilateral system to face today's many ongoing crises, and stating that you have been proactive and unafraid of shouldering responsibilities, while declaring that India will always be a voice of moderation, an advocate of dialogue and a proponent of international law. However, what we are seeing now is totally the Worst Disaster and Wildest Murder that could either lead to a second Hitler Holocaust or a repeated Bin Laden Armageddon.

Isn't it a Shame for the United Nations, its Security Council, its General Assembly and whoever believes in Guterres' Leninist Leadership to remain watching a Mass Killing of women, men and children in Afghanistan instead of dispatching International Peacekeeping Forces to protect those vulnerable women, men and children from the Demon Taliban?

Your Excellency,

Afghanistan is a Nation where Queen Soraya Tarzi thrived and ruled as a Western Modern Muslim Woman. She was the First Consort to appear with her husband in public; an act that was unheard of at the time, making history as Tarzi Family promoted the modernization of a Nation called Afghanistan. She was a woman ahead of her time running nowadays lifestyle participating with her husband in the hunting parties, riding on horseback, and even attending cabinet meetings. Queen Soraya of Afghanistan was not only filling a Political Position, but also became One of the Most Influential Women in the World at the time. What a Pride and a Prestige!

Queen Soraya was the face of the change in Afghanistan, being specifically instrumental in designing and implementing changes pertaining to women due to her family's sophisticated and liberal intellectual ideology which blossomed and concretely embedded itself in her husband the King Amanullah's reign. Her husband King Amanullah of Afghanistan drew up the First Constitution, establishing the basis for the Formal Structure of the Government and setting up the Role of the Monarch within the constitutional framework as he Publicly Campaigned against the Veil and the Polygamy, and Encouraged Education of Girls in Kabul and in the Countryside.

At a public function, King Amanullah of Afghanistan said: "Islam did not require women to cover their bodies or wear any special kind of veil". At the conclusion of his speech, his wife Queen Soraya of Afghanistan tore off her veil in public, and the wives of other government officials -present at the meeting- followed her example. Throughout her husband's reign, Queen Soraya wore wide-brimmed hats with a diaphanous veil attached to them, and Many Women from King Amanullah's family Publicly Participated in Organizations and went on to Become Government Officials later in life.

Your Excellency,

Queen Soraya Encouraged Women to get an Education and sent 15 Young Women to Turkey for Higher Education in 1928. Queen Soraya was influential in enforcing Change for Women and Publicly exhorted them to be Active Participants in her Nation Building. In 1926, at the Seventh Anniversary of Afghanistan Independence from Great Britain, Queen Soraya gave a Public Speech as follows:
"It {Independence} belongs to all of us and that is why we celebrate it. Do you think, however, that our nation from the outset needs only men to serve it? Women should also take their part as women did in the early years of our nation and Islam. From their examples we must learn that we must all contribute toward the development of our nation and that this cannot be done without being equipped with knowledge. So we should all attempt to acquire as much knowledge as possible, in order that we may render our services to society in the manner of the women of early Islam."

These are Queen Soraya's Achievements in Afghanistan:

- She founded First Girls' Schools: Masturat School in 1920 and Ismat Malalai School in 1921;
- She founded Masturat Hospital for Women in 1924;
- She founded -along with her mother- First Magazine for Women called Ershad-I-Niswan {Guidance for Women} in 1927;
- She founded Women's Organization named Anjuman-i-Himayat-i-Niswan in 1928;
- She spoke to a Large Group of Students and Leaders.

Afghanistan Impressed the World with its Changes that were Emulated as Development Models, but the Westernization may have been Premature because Conservative Muslims disagreed with the changes that made the country's Religious Sects grow Violent.

Since the British Government did not have a good relationship with Queen Soraya's family as a whole, the British Agents Stoked the Revenge against the Afghan Royal Family by distributing international publications showing Soraya without a veil, dining with foreign men, and having her hand kissed by the leaders of France and Germany, etc... among tribal regions of Afghanistan. As a result, Conservative Afghans and Regional Leaders considered the images and the details from the royal family's trip to be a flagrant betrayal of Afghan Culture and Religion and an insult to the honor of Afghan Women. When the royal family returned from Europe, they were met with hostility and Afghanistan was overthrown in a civil war. This Historic Event indicates how the Hypocrisy of Great Britain Destroyed the Remarkable Reforms of King Amanullah in Afghanistan, making the British Malice a Force for the Emergence of what we see Now as Fatal Extremism in Afghanistan.

The King and the Queen of Afghanistan received honorary degrees from Oxford University, being seen as both promoters of enlightened western values in Afghanistan, and ruling an important Buffer State, between the British Indian Empire and the Soviet Union's Ambition in the Region.

Have the United Kingdom, India, China and/or Russia showed any Intent to Attempt to Prevent the Illicit Terrorist Onslaught from taking place in Afghanistan? All what India has been working on -as a President of the Security Council- is avoiding to blame China for its Takeover of UN Power, and preparing for its Big Coalition CIR: China-India-Russia in order to form an imperious Tri-Nations Economic Power in Asia.

I believe that, for the triumph of our Women, for the prosperity of our Nations, for the peace and security in this Earth, and for the World not to come to an end, neither the United Kingdom nor India should be Permanent Members in the Security Council. Had I been elected UN Secretary-General, this Afghanistan's Chaos would have Never been our Focus; and I would have not only revealed Guterres' Mess, but I would have also Unmasked Guterres' Real Face, because I am a WOMAN.
